

THE INN ON
LOCH LOMOND

We have created a new type of casual dining within the relaxed atmosphere of Mr C's Fish and Whisky Bar and Restaurant, serving seafood, burgers and steaks and, what many describe as the best fish and chips in Scotland. A fantastic Little C's children's menu or if you prefer order food to take-away.

Located on the main A82, just 3 miles north of the picturesque village of Luss, you will find stunning views across Scotland's most famous Loch towards Ben Lomond, and yet just over 30 minutes drive from Glasgow Airport.

THE INN ON LOCH LOMOND

innonlochlomond.co.uk

The Inn on Loch Lomond is a cosy, romantic and atmospheric property which first opened in 1814 serving as a watering hole to generations of travellers heading north and south along the route of the A82. It has retained its traditional charm and has been honoured with a stylish and contemporary refurbishment and now boasts modern accommodation, uniquely stylised public spaces, a fantastic restaurant and bar with natural furnishings and of course a roaring fire.

There are 33 guest bedrooms with a range of room types from Classic Glen Douglas / Loch Lomond or for a view select our Executive Ben Lomond which also offers a little more space. For some luxury our Beach House Doubles are perfect and enjoy a unique lochside setting. Located just a short stroll from the main hotel building the Beach House offers crisp white linens, wooden floors, chaise-lounges and views out to the jetty, loch and mountains...the beach house is a very special place to unwind and relax. The ultimate in Loch Lomond luxury accommodation.

The wild beauty of Loch Lomond and the Trossachs has attracted visitors for many generations - a magical place with breathtaking scenery which will thrill the heart and awaken the senses. Some 7 million people still lose themselves in the vast countryside and waters of Loch Lomond every year. If the great outdoors isn't your thing The Inn's renowned folk music plays every Friday and Saturday evening with an excellent line up of artists - the perfect way to spend an entertaining evening.
